Strict security measures along sector boundaries in Berlin are intended to be taken soon. According to plans of the GDR Government, the crossing of boundaries will only be allowed to persons who have been issued special passes. All persons passing through the authorized crossing points will be subjected to close checks. The measures have been designed for purely political reasons with a view of creating pressure for negotiations with Moscow.

Comment. Stricter control measures along sector and zonal boundaries were demanded by Wollweber in April 1955. It is believed that the Soviets will only approve those measures suggested by Wollweber which may promote their plans for a new status of Berlin.
